

P.E.I. COLLECTION
LIBRARY OF U.P.E.I.

Magazine
The Island

Contents

Number 18 Fall/Winter, 1985

LIBRARY USE ONLY

Letters to the Editor

2

Articles

St. Eleanors: The Veneered Village
Robert Tuck

3

Dear Patrick & Catherine....
A Letter from the Great Famine
Edited by John Cousins

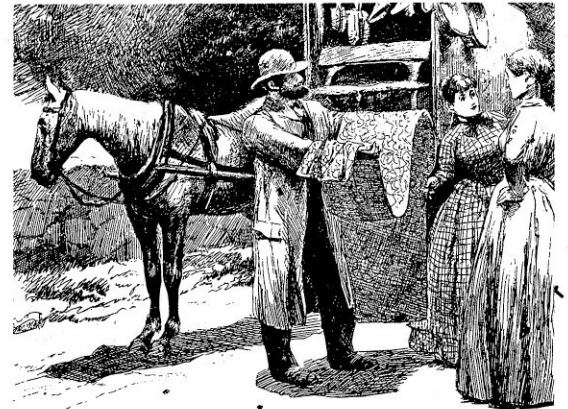

9

Going to the Country: Lebanese
Peddlers on Prince Edward Island
David Weale

11

The Builder: Isaac Smith & Early
Island Architecture
Marianne Morrow

17

Country peddlers were once commonplace on the Island. David Weale probes the trade's significance for Lebanese immigrants to the province.

Natural History

The View from the Hill
Lawson Drake

24

Lawson Drake evokes the moods and rhythms of his home along the West River.

Genealogy

Those Elusive Immigrants, Part III
Orlo Jones & Douglas Fraser

The popular passenger list series concludes — for now.

Reviews

36

Contributors

41

Front cover: Province House, seat of the Island Government. The origins of this architectural drawing are obscure.
