

CONTENTS

Number 24 Fall/Winter, 1988

Articles

The Posse Comitatus Incident of 1865 3
Ian Ross Robertson

The Survivor: The Wreck and Salvage of the Turret Bell 11
Adele Townshend

Panorama for Sale: The Bird's Eye Views of Prince Edward Island 14
H. T. Holman

Cows and Convalescents: Government House as Health and Education Centre, 1917-1924 19
Randolph W. Manning

Alberton: Hub of the West 25
Written & Illustrated by Robert C. Tuck

After the Turret Bell ran aground during a vicious storm in the fall of 1906, most people thought the shore at Cable Head would be the steamer's graveyard. They were wrong.

Natural History

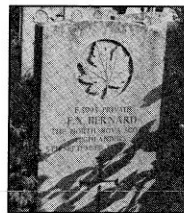

Roads Less Travelled By: Scenic Heritage Roads
on Prince Edward Island 30
Fred Horne and Jackie Waddell

The Island's rustic roads provide vistas for the present and a door to our past.

Genealogy

That Mark Our Place: Island War Dead in Europe
Part One: The Second World War 34
Compiled by Elmer Phillips and Tanton McNeill
Introduction by Edward MacDonald

From the fields of Flanders to the sun of Italy, two ex-servicemen have trodden the ground where Island soldiers lie buried.

Reviews 44

Contributors 45

LIBRARY USE ONLY